Turf Valley Resort to offer Complimentary WiFi Access in all Guest Rooms

Ellicott City, Maryland (March 23, 2007) --- Turf Valley Resort, owned and operated by Mangione Family Enterprises, is pleased to offer its guests complimentary WiFi access in all 171 sleeping rooms beginning on April 1st.

WiFi, a wireless local area network, will allow guests to connect their WiFi enabled devices, such as laptops, cell phones and PDA's, to the internet without having to incur charges. "Our guests pay for their internet at home, while they're on the road and staying with us we'd like to offer them the luxury of free web access," said Pete Mangione, General Manager of Turf Valley Resort.

Also, located in the hotel's main lobby will be one hot spot designated for guests to connect to the internet free of charge. "The hot spot's location will be a great resource for business meeting attendees. Guests won't have to go back to their rooms to check their email during a busy day," said Andrew Oakes, MIS Director of Turf Valley Resort.
